

FIRST PARISH CHURCH OF GROTON

January 24, 2010

Ringing of the Bell

Rebecca Pike, Bell-Ringer

A Thought as the Service Begins

The familiar life horizon has been outgrown; the old concepts ideals and emotional patterns no longer fit; the time for the passing of a threshold is at hand. (Joseph Campbell)

Releasing the separate one is a difficult knot.
Finding yourself is something only you can do.
Imagine yourself coming back
10 years from today
Through time, to help you
where you must now be. (Jim Cohn)

(We ask that you turn off the ringers on your cell phones, beepers and electronic devices. Please join us in a time of quiet during the prelude.)

Prelude Voluntary in D (Domenico Scarlatti)

Call to Worship Now Let Us Sing (traditional) Adult Choir

Welcome and Announcements Melinda Green, Worship Leader

Hymn Lean on Me (insert)

Chalice Lighting Andy Hughes and Kurt Staven
(Youth and Mentor, Coming of Age, 2001-2002)

Response Hymn (please remain seated) #123

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of life, come to me, come to me.

The Opening Ceremony for the Coming of Age of:

Abbie Clark, Trevor Frey, Matt Leonardis, Conor McNierney,
Jackie Meyer, Gabe Ellis Moore, Sean Nishi, Hanna Tellier,
Sam Torgersen, Kathryn Wheeler

Singing the Children and Teachers to Church School

Go now in peace. Go now in peace. #413
May the love of God surround you
Everywhere, everywhere you may go. (repeat)

Anthem My Shepherd Will Supply My Need (arr. Virgil Thomson)
Adult Choir

Reading Walk carefully, well loved one Ursula Le Guin

Spoken Prayer, followed by Silent Meditation

Offertory Trio (Jaques Boyvin)

Offertory Response (Words: Barbara Rich; Music: Joshua Rich)

Today we give our time
Our compassion, wit and song
Everyday we can choose,
To begin again in love.

We give what we can,
Generous as we can
Opening the doors
To begin again in love.

Sermon The Passing of a Threshold is at Hand Rev. Elea Kemler

Hymn Guide My Feet #348

*Sung Benediction

Carry the flame of peace and love until we meet again.
Oh, carry the flame of peace and love until we meet again.

Postlude Voluntary in B flat (Maurice Greene)

(Please remain seated during the Postlude. You are also invited to come to the front of the church and light a candle silently during this time. Please place your candle toward the back of the candle table. We ask the congregation to remain seated in quiet until the last candle is lit.)

Please stand as you are able.

Large Print Hymnals, Sunday Bulletins and Assisted Listening Devices are available at the sanctuary doors. If you don't wish to keep your Sunday Bulletin, please place it one of the recycle baskets at the sanctuary exits.

(Service continues on back cover)

Join us downstairs for good food and conversation immediately following the service! All are welcome to join the Small Group Conversation, a quieter alternative to Fellowship Hour, in the first floor library at 11:30 AM.

Greeter: Caleb Clark, Maeve Kidney
Ushers: Kathy and Greg Reiff

WELCOME TO VISITORS: Visitors are encouraged to sign the Visitor's Book downstairs. Please stop by the Newcomer's Table on the stage in the Vestry. It has information on the First Parish Church and Unitarian Universalism. Join us for our fellowship hour in the Vestry following the service. Nametags help us to identify one another. You can order one at the Visitors' Table. Our minister, staff and identified leaders are available to meet with you to answer questions about our community.

THE FIRST PARISH CHURCH OF GROTON was gathered as the town church in 1664. The congregation worships in its fourth Meeting House which was completed in 1755. A town clock and Revere-cast bell rings out our call to service every Sunday. The congregation is a member of the Unitarian Universalist Association, a liberal faith that affirms the inherent worth and dignity of every person; justice, equity, and compassion in human relations; acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth; a free and responsible search for truth and meaning; the right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large; the goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all; and respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Membership is open to all age 13 and older. If you are interested in membership, please speak to the minister or any member of the Membership Committee.

"First Parish is a Unitarian Universalist Association Welcoming Congregation. We warmly welcome members of the gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender community."

FIRST PARISH CHURCH

We are a community seeking to deepen spiritually, to take care of one another, and to be a blessing to the world.

A Warm Welcome to All!

There is childcare for infants and toddlers through age 3-1/2 years beginning at 9:50 AM on the second floor of the East Wing and you are welcome to take children there at any time during the service. There are quiet toys in the soft, red pouches in each pew. The service is also broadcast downstairs in the large room beneath us if children become restless. Toys appropriate for preschoolers are available there.
