Ringing of the Bell Rebecca Pike, Bell-Ringer

Thoughts as the Service Begins:

Let yourself be silently drawn by the strange pull of what you really love. (Rumi)

You shall love the stranger (exile, foreigner, sojourner),
for you know the heart of the stranger,
for you were strangers.
You have been strangers,
in the land of Egypt. (Deuteronomy 10)

*(We ask that you turn off the ringers on your cell phones, beepers and electronic devices, and the flashes on your cameras.
Please join us in a time of quiet during the prelude.)*

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of life, come to me, come to me.

Pilgrimage—Hearing the Call

Before the journey comes the call. Whether late at night, in mid-day, via a still, small voice, or rolling thunder, the message finds all who are poised to listen. (Irv Rockwood)

A voice comes to your soul saying
Lift your foot. Cross over.
Move into emptiness
Of question, and answer and question.

(Rumi)

A Warm Welcome to All!

There is childcare for infants and toddlers through age 4 years beginning at 9:50 AM on the second floor of the East Wing and you are welcome to take children there at any time during the service. There are quiet toys in the soft, multicolored fabric pouches in each pew. The service is also broadcast downstairs in the large room beneath us if children become restless.
