Ringing of the Bell

Rebecca Pike, Bell-Ringer

A Thought as the Service Begins:

What To Tell The Children

Tell them that this is the great awakening.
Tell them that we humans have made some huge mistakes
And that's how we now find ourselves in this tenuous place.
Teach them that hate is the poison.
Teach them that love is the remedy....

Teach them humility,
But also to re-learn to trust their intuition...
Tell them their gifts are useful.
Tell them they are beautiful.
Tell them they are the truth. (Rachel Kann)

(We ask that you turn off the ringers on your cell phones, beepers and electronic devices, and the flashes on your cameras. Please join us in a time of quiet during the prelude. During the music you are invited to post your joys and sorrows on the wall near your pew. If mobility is difficult, please ask a neighbor.

Response Hymn

(please remain seated) #123

Spanish trans. Rev. Lilia Cuervo and Ervin Barrios

Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Sopla al volar, sube en la mar;
Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.

Arráigame, libérame,
Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of life, come to me, come to me

May your mind be open to new learning
May your lips bring truth into the world

Offertory

Beware of Darkness (George Harrison)

In order to give some of Rwanda's neediest children a chance to break the cycle of poverty, Kigali Reading Center provides free books and literacy training. Kigali Reading Center is a 501(c)3 charity incorporated here in Massachusetts and now operates two centers in Rwanda, one in Kigali and one in Nyamata.

Offertory Response (Words: Barbara Rich; Music: Shawn McCann)

Today we give our time
Our compassion, wit and song
Everyday we can choose,
To begin again in love.

We give what we can,
Generous as we can
Opening the doors
To begin again in love.

A Blessing for the Day
